I Have a Dream

Dr. Arthi Ramkissoon

To dream is everyone's right: to dream of a better future, to know that you are cared for. The dream of Dr Arthi Ramkissoon was to inspire like-minded people to come together and help realise the dreams of millions of children in KwaZulu-Natal. Simple dreams: of better health, exceptional care and a good quality of life.

Opened in 1931, the KwaZulu-Natal Children's Hospital (then known as the Addington Children's Hospital), the first of its kind in Africa, was specifically established to provide for the care and treatment of children. Subsequently, having been shut down by the Apartheid government in 1984 because it offered services to children of colour, the hospital fell into disrepair.

It was in 2010 through the vision of Dr Arthi Ramkissoon that the dream was reignited and the possibility of a world-class hospital for the children of the KwaZulu-Natal became a reality.

Tragically, Arthi succumbed to Covid-19 in January 2021. She leaves behind a legacy of excellence in child health much needed by the province, with 34% of the population under 14 years old. In her tenure as CEO of the KwaZulu-Natal Children's Hospital Trust, she spearheaded fundraising in excess of R100 million, which paved the way for substantial progress for the re-establishment project. This includes the refurbishment of the Old Outpatients Building, which houses a multi-disciplinary Neurodevelopment Assessment Centre, a regional training centre, and office space for clinical staff and the Trust.

Renovations have also been done to the roof and external facade of both the main Old Children's Hospital and the Old Nurses' Home buildings and a new 7 000 square metre basement, including parking for 120 cars, and a basement structure designed to allow for a future six-storey medical building, have been built.

More recently, additional progress on the project includes a new psychology centre, a centre for adolescent health, and a world first Covid-19 isolation facility specially designed for children and parents.

As each section is completed, the Trust hands over the facility to the Department of Health for operational use.

To date, this successful public-private partnership has resulted in 25 000 children having received treatment and care at the Neurodevelopment Assessment Centre. "The KZN Children's Hospital is a centre of excellence which offers specialised medical care for children with special needs such as epilepsy, autism, behavioural disorders and physical disabilities. Funding is desperately needed to ensure that restoration is completed and the dream to offer care to all disadvantaged and vulnerable children is realised" said Dr Lawrence Mubaiwa, Trustee of the KZN Children's Hospital Trust and Head of the Division of Paediatric Neurology & Child Development at the University of KwaZulu-Natal and Inkosi Albert Luthuli Hospital.

While significant progress has been made at the Hospital, a large amount of funding is still required to complete the project in its entirety.

The KZN Children's Hospital Trust is therefore on a mission to raise awareness and thus also raise funds through their #BuyABrickBuildAFuture initiative, whereby the public are able to contribute to the rebuild by buying virtual bricks online – as many as they want – at R100 per brick via the hospital website: www.kznchildrenshospital.org. KZN's East Coast Radio shares the values and beliefs of the KZN Children's Hospital Trust and has lent considerable support to the project with a campaign having been run from mid-October, coinciding with Mental Health Awareness month.

For more information on the Hospital re-establishment project, visit www.kznchildrenshospital.org. To follow the conversation on social media, find the KZN Children's Hospital on Facebook (@KZNChildrensHospital) and LinkedIn (KwaZulu-Natal Children's Hospital).

Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs: Drama Theatre: 18 - 30 Dec
Sundowner Concerts and Poetry series

It's beginning to feel a lot like Christmas! A busy weekend coming up at the Playhouse with the opening of their two major Christmas shows – beautiful ballet, The Nutcracker, on Friday evening (17 / 12) and the family pantomime, Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs, on Saturday (18 / 12).

The runs of both productions are virtually sold out due to overwhelming popular demand.

What would a Christmas be without a family panto? The Playhouse Company is delighted to present KickstArt's family pantomime, Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs, which promises to be a riot of magic, colour and laughter adapted, written and directed by Steven Stead with gorgeous sets, puppets and costumes by Greg King.

The Playhouse Company presents Joburg Ballet in one of the most popular and beloved Christmas classical ballets in the world with an enchanting new production of The Nutcracker on 17, 18 and 19 December in the Opera Theatre with live accompaniment by the mighty KZN Philharmonic Orchestra under the baton of Lykele Temmingh.

The Nutcracker was originally choreographed by Marius Petipa, with a score by Tchaikovsky; this new version is produced and choreographed by artistic director Iain MacDonald.

'Tis the season to kick back and wind down! Don't rush home from work – pop into the Playhouse for a free Sundowner Concert and Poetry session – this Friday featuring Malini and Afro Soul and brilliant poets.

Traditionally the Christmas season is a time of families and whimsy, laughter and fun, pantos and ballet, song and dance. The Playhouse, an agency of the Department of Sport, Arts and Culture and the province's premier theatre entity, has produced a carefully-curated programme of old school nostalgia, with a contemporary twist.

The Playhouse is fastidious about Covid protocols, and great thought and care has gone into ensuring all protocols are being observed.

Are you Desperate For Financial Solution?

Money & Legal Matter has been helping people out of their debt for the past 17 years.

Owner Anba "Paddy" Padayachee said " Money & Legal Matters differ from other debt review companies in that they drastically reduce the client's total debt, enabling the clients to pay it off within an average of 18 months, at an affordable rate."

Money & Legal Matters help people to get their lives back on track.

"We give them financial headway in life,' he said.

LOCAL RESIDENT FROM EMPANGENI SAW HIMSELF FALL INTO DEBT

Nearly R500 000 in the red, it would have him a lifetime to try and pay off this ever climbing amount. Due to all this debt and now a bad credit record he would never be able to invest in a house or even buy his wife a new car. "Mr. Abdul, desperate to take control of his life, saw a local newspaper advert for Money & Legal Matters and approached owner Anba "Paddy" Padaychee for help.

The best news is Mr Abdul's name has been cleared. He is now free to buy a house for his family. This is just one of Padd's many success stories, whose Empangeni based company, money & Legal Matters, has been helping people out of their debt.

Paddy says Money & Legal Matters differ from other debt review companies where they drastically reduce the clients total debt, allowing the client to pay it off within an average of 18 months, at an affordable rate.

The problems with debts is that it quickly becomes unmanageable. Reckless lending to people who cannot afford it, has caused millions of South Africans to land in Financial Trouble.

"Debt becomes a trap that most people don't know how to get out of,' says Paddy.

Money & Legal Matters help people to get their lives back on track.

Give the gift of language

DEAFinition, a non-profit company that provide a range of services and funding opportunities to promote equal access for the Deaf community of South Africa, encourage the public to consider giving the gift of language this festive season.

"We have recently launched an online course offering a basic introduction to South African Sign Language (SASL) at a nominal cost of only R250 per person. The training is self-paced, allowing you to work through the content at your leisure.

The link to the training is available for a month from date of purchase and on conclusion you are able to download a certificate of completion. This course is aimed at anyone who is interested in learning more about the Deaf community, their culture, and SASL signs to support everyday conversations," explains Shubnum Nabbi-Maharaj, DEAFinition Director.

The course was created by eDEAF, a proudly Deaf led organisation that offers training courses and learnership programs to empower Deaf communities for business.

The SASL online course is aimed at people aged sixteen years and older, and consists of six, easy-to-navigate modules and a short completion exam. It is available through the DEAFintion website: www.deafinition.co.za

"People are welcome to purchase a course for themselves or give the course as a gift to someone else," adds Nabbi-Maharaj.

Another ground-breaking milestone that DEAFinition have been instrumental in, is the development of an easily accessible SASL App that was officially launched in September this year. The SASL App is free and is available to download via Google Play and The App Store.

"The goal of this App is to bridge the communication gap between Deaf and the hearing by allowing people to simply search for a word or specific phrase on any mobile device that has the free App installed," explains Nabbi-Maharaj.

The Deaf community is one of the most marginalised groups in South Africa due to the fact that they cannot communicate freely with the hearing world.

"Let's collectively strive towards eliminating communication barriers and consider giving the gift of language this festive season," concludes Nabbi-Maharaj.

Purchase the basic introduction to SASL course here: www.deafinition.co.za

ANT FACTS

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

Many ant species build their nests outdoors, and became a nuisance when they forage for food inside your home.
Some of the more common ant species that may invade and choose to reside inside are pavement ants, carpenter ants, odorous house ants, thief ants, acrobat ants and pharaoh ants.
Ants inside your home or apartment can be a seasonal or year-round problem.
Once they discover a good food source, some species may decide to live inside your home, others may collect their food and leave to take the food back to their outdoor colony.
Inside ants may be found near their food sources, moisture and in hidden, protected places like wall voids, under appliances, behind window frames and beneath floors.
Ants like to live close to people and eat some of the same things we do - sweets, meats, starches and liquids.

Generous support for local NGO's from Korean Embassy & local Korean Businesses

Handover ceremony of donations.

In response to the devastation experienced after the recent riots and looting, the Korean Embassy and several Korean businesses rallied together to raise funds for four local NGO's in KwaZulu-Natal. Over R500 000,00 in cash and product donations was raised and handed over at an official ceremony on the 16th November at the Capital Pearl Hotel in Umhlanga to representatives from iKhethelo Children's Village, Open Door Crises Centre, Ukuthula Trust and LIV Village.

Mr. Kwang-Jeon Lee, Chairman of the Durban Korean Association, welcomed guests to the handover ceremony followed by an address by the South Korean Ambassador, H.E. Chull-joo Park.

Dr Nonhlanhla Mkhize, Director-General from the Office of the Premier in KwaZulu-Natal was also in attendance and gave a vote of thanks in her address to guests.

Donators included the Korean Embassy, KOTRA, the Korean Business Club which consists of more than 30 corporate companies including LG Electronics SA, KEPCO Africa, KEPCO KPS SA, KSURE, Afriq Fiber and the Koaf group.

"LG Electronics and Afriq Fiber, who suffered the biggest losses among Korean companies during the unrest were the biggest donors for this fundraising initiative. A truly inspiring and remarkable deed that illustrates the power in collaboration and selfless giving," says Kwang-Jeon Lee.

For further information please contact Mr. Kwang-Jeon Lee, Chairman of the Durban Korean Association on 079 460 9107.

Gender-based Violence community gathering a success

GBV community gathering a success

The Department of Community Safety and Liaison organised a community meeting against gender-based violence (GBV) on the 25th November at the Cowies Hill Community Hall.

The event was well supported by several community stakeholders including: Fidelity ADT, the Pinetown Community Policing Forum (CPF), South African Police Services (SAPS), Metro Police, Correctional Services, several non-profit organisations and church leaders. Productive group discussions were held around the root causes of GBV and collective solutions where shared to reduce and ultimately put an end to GBV.

Law firm spreads festive joy

Sponsors from Vulindlela Holdings, the NS Xulu Inc. team and the social workers and staff of the KwaMashu Family & Child Welfare Society.

Local law firm, NS Xulu Inc. hosted their annual Christmas Fun Day in partnership with Vulindlela Holdings on the 10th December from 9am-1pm at the KwaMashu Family & Child Welfare Society.

Over eighty-five children from local crèches were treated to a day filled with fun, treats and gifts. The children enjoyed a water slide, jumping castle, a DJ, face painting, candy floss, popcorn and so much more. Each child received a party pack filled with goodies, toys and left with their own pair of shoes. In addition, Vulindlela Holdings, generously donated R50 000,00 to the KwaMashu Family & Child Welfare Society in support of the wonderful work they do for the local community.

Director of NS Xulu Inc, Nompumelelo Xulu, says her team are genuinely delighted to have been able to give these children a fun-filled Christmas party. "This annual event is close to our hearts and we are incredibly humbled to have been able to spread some festive joy amongst these precious children," says Nompumelelo.
